With the arrival of August maybe you are trying to plan one more family visit, outing or vacation before your focus shifts to back to school preparations. While most people picture preparing for back to school as finding out what teacher(s) your child got, shopping for new school supplies and picking out that first day of school outfit. Families of a child with a disability know it is much more involved. To help these families stay organized during this busy and emotional time we wanted to share a comprehensive checklist.

Back-to-School Checklist for Special Needs Parents

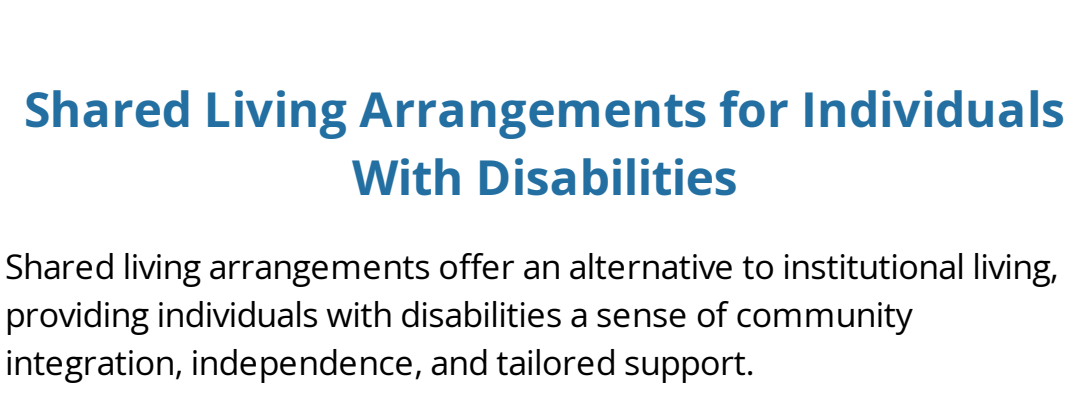

As always we hope you find this and the articles below informative and helpful. If we can be of assistance please reach out!

The Benefits of Establishing a Special Needs Trust Early

One of the most powerful tools available to help secure a stable financial future for a child with special needs is a special needs trust (SNT). Setting up an SNT early in a child's life can bring significant advantages that grow over time.
