As the seasons begin to shift and routines settle into place, September offers us moment to regroup, refocus, and advocate with renewed clarity. This month, we invited Tanusha Thuraisingam, Esq. to share with us her insights on Where to Start the Disability Benefits Process for Your Child. This is an important and often overwhelming topic for families in the special needs community.

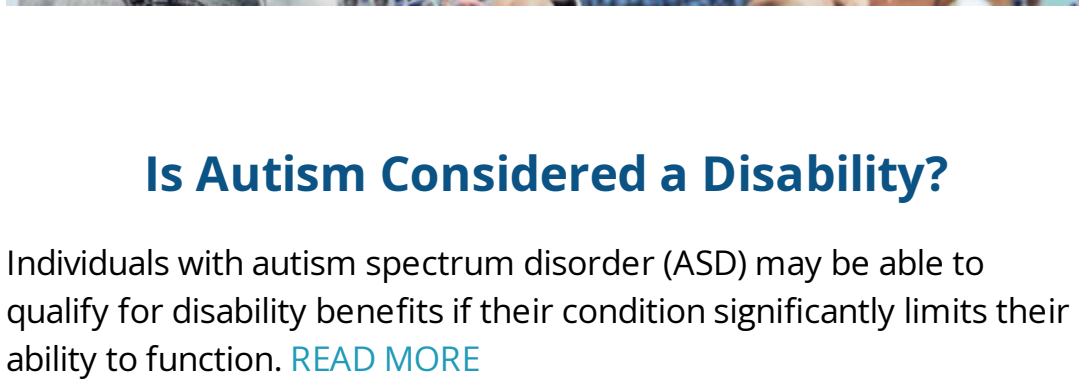

Whether you are just starting to explore available resources or have been navigating the system for a while, understanding where to begin can make all the difference. Please reach out if we can be of assistance. Also, remember you can find this article, past issues of the Clover Leaf Compass and our Guide to Community Resources on our website.
